Youth Against Plastic

NSW LEADERSHIP CAMP

MAY 17-20 | DORRIGO

Booking essential.
Only 50 places.

Youth Against Plastic (YAP) began as a group of young people in Bellingen who aim to ban single use plastic bags in NSW and are now taking their campaign statewide.

This leadership camp is open to young people 15-20 y.o across NSW who are interested in working with other young people towards a plastic free future.

Participants will learn new bush skills, teamwork skills and campaign skills to help them plan a campaign for a ban a plastic bags when they get back to their home towns.
